Of Greater Food Value

Whole wheat is of greater food value than any other cereal. It contains all of the fourteen elements necessary for the sustenance of the human body. The most important of these (the nitrogenous principles and salts) lie near the surface of the grain and are only partly utilized in the manufacture of the present-day wheat flour.

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CELERY FOOD

JURY IS COMPLETED

Twelve Men Chosen to Decide Fate of W. D. Haywood.

END CAME UNEXPECTEDLY

Last Two Jurors Selected Sooner Than Had Been Anticipated—Defendant in Famous Murder Case Again Indisposed.

Boise, Ida., June 4.—Twelve men to try William D. Haywood for his life on the charge that he murdered Governor Frank Steunenberg have been chosen and bound by oath to deal justice between state and prisoner. Haywood has heard the indictment charging him with the crime and after the state has recited its case and made promise of proof, the first chapter of the tale of the Caldwell crime will be retold.

The wearisome work of jury selection ended quickly and unexpectedly. Alfred Eoff, the first talesman examined, was declared qualified after strong and repeated protests from the defense. Eoff said he had an opinion; that he would carry his opinion into the trial; that he could not presume the defendant innocent and that he would not like to be tried himself by a man who had any opinion, but despite these conditions of his mind he thought that if sworn as a juror he could fairly try the case according to the law and evidence. Four challenges for cause against him failed, but the minute he was passed the defense expended its tenth and last challenge to get rid of him.

O. V. Sebern, the next talesman called, proved the last one needed. When a resident of Wyoming, Sebern served as a member of the Tom Horn jury and the defense went into the matter quite thoroughly, but in the end the talesman qualified in a manner satisfactory to both sides. The defense had contemplated making a request for permission to reopen the examination of certain jurors, but this plan was abandoned and when Judge Wood ordered the jury sworn no objection came from either side.

An Impressive Scene.

The courtroom came to a silence as the twelve jurors rose in their places, and, facing the clerk's desk on the left, raised their right hands in solemn affirmation of their pledge to do justice by the accused. It was an impressive scene and there came another two hours later when after the midday recess Haywood listened to the reading of the indictment against himself, Moyer, Pettibone and Simpkins. Haywood had come to the courtroom whitened somewhat in color by his illness of Saturday, but as the clerk walked in front of the jury box and began reading the indictment a little tide of blood came up along his neck and spread over his cheek. He looked away from the scene directly in front of him for a few moments and then, more self-possessed, returned his gaze to the jury box.

His wife and daughters sat at his side during the brief afternoon session at which the indictment was read. Haywood talked with them and his counsel after the statement was read, and then as he rose to return to his cell, smiled a greeting at a friend sitting near the end of the bench.

James H. Hawley, for the prosecution, will address the jury with the state's opening statement. He has prepared no manuscript and said that he would be very brief. "I am going to take the matter over and jot down some headings," he said, "and from those headings I will talk. I may write one portion of the opening statement and if I do I shall read it when I come to it."

Planned Campaign of Terrorism.

Broadly speaking, the state will charge that Haywood, conspiring with Moyer, Pettibone and Simpkins and others of the alleged "inner circle" of the Western Federation of Miners, plotted a campaign of terrorism that had for its double purpose the removal by assassination of those opposed to the organization and the retention and increase of control and power within the organization. It will allege that the explosion at the Vindicator mine, the blowing up of the Independence derot, the murder of Light Gregory, a detective of Denver, the murder of Arthur Collins of Telluride, the alleged blowing up of Fred Bradley of San Francisco and the alleged attempts on the lives of former Governor Peabody and Judges Gabbert and Goddard of Colorado, were all acts in a single great conspiracy to which the murder of Governor Steunenberg was incidental. It will be charged that Haywood was the genius behind the great plot and that Steunenberg was added to the list because of his part during the labor troubles in North Idaho.

It will be alleged that Haywood and his associates planned the long list of crimes and sent Harry Orchard and Steve Adams forth as hired executioners.

The state's testimony will begin with a rehearsal of the grim Caldwell tragedy in which Frank Steunenberg was blown to death by a bomb on the night of Dec. 30, 1905, and the presence at Caldwell of Harry Orchard and John L. Simpkins, a member of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners, will be shown. After that Harry Orchard, who, it is charged, actually murdered Steunenberg, will be connected with the crime, and then Orchard will be called to the stand to re-tell the confession which it is alleged he made to Detective McPartland. After that will come the state's effort to corroborate the Orchard story and to clinch by other testimony the general part of the Western Federation of Miners and the particular part of William D. Haywood alleged in connection with the murder.

In the work of securing the Haywood jury the court has been in session fifteen days. One hundred and fifty-six talesmen were examined. Of this number thirty-four qualified, including the twelve men now in the box. Juror Orric Cole was excused on account of sickness and J. E. Tourtelotte was excused after examination on the ground of opposition to capital punishment.

A brief description of the jury follows:

Thomas B. Gess—A farmer now engaged in the real estate and insurance business in Boise; occupies the first chair. He is a Democrat, born in Missouri, and is fifty-nine years old.

Finley McBean—In the second chair; was born in Scotland and emigrated to Canada. He is fifty-two years old, and owns a ten-acre farm five miles west of Boise. He is a Republican.

Samuel D. Gilman—Is fifty-seven years of age and owns a ranch near Star, in the southern portion of Idaho county. He is a Republican and came to Idaho from Oregon.

Youngest Man on the Jury.

Daniel Clark—Farmer and stock raiser, is thirty-two years old, and is the youngest man in the jury. He was born in Missouri. He is a Democrat.

George Powell—Fifth juror in the front row, is a gray-bearded farmer, sixty years old, a Democrat, born in Kansas. He owns a farm near Meridian.

O. V. Sebern—The juror who qualified after all the peremptory challenges had been exhausted, is fifty-two years old and a farmer. He is a Democrat.

H. F. Messgear—The first man on the left of the second row, was born in Canada fifty-two years ago. He is a farmer and a Republican.

Lee Schriener—An Ada county farmer who came to Idaho from Kansas, is sixty years old. He is a Republican.

J. A. Robertson—A carpenter, is the second Scotchman to be selected on the jury. He occupies the eighth chair, is seventy-three years old and a Republican.

Levi D. Smith—Is a resident of Boise and is in the employ of one of the street railways of this city. He was at one time a farmer and afterward a traveling man.

A. P. Burns—A carpenter, but at one time farmed in the Boise valley. He is fifty-two years old and a Republican.

S. F. Russell—Who was the first of the twelve jurymen selected, and who has gone under the fire of twenty peremptory challenges unscathed, is a rancher of prominence. He is a Prohibitionist. He was born in Illinois sixty-eight years ago.

Robbery and Murder.

Washington, Pa., June 4.—The mangled body of an unknown man was found on the tracks of the Pennsylvania railway at Meadownlands. His pockets were turned inside out. The authorities believe the man was robbed and murdered and his body placed on the tracks.

STRIKE ABOUT ENDED

French Marine Workers Urged to Return to Work.

MINISTER OF MARINE FIRM

Declared It Was Impossible to Accede to the Demands of the Strikers. Promised That No Penalties Would Be Inflicted on Strikers.

Paris, June 4.—The extended strike of the seamen has virtually come to an end with the capitulation of the strikers, who are expected to resume work at the home and colonial ports.

Captain La Peyre, one of the strikers' delegates, conveyed this information to Minister of Marine Thomson. He informed Mr. Thomson that the strike committee assembled in Paris had telegraphed the following message to all ports:

"The delegates have been in conference with the minister of marine and the naval committee of the chamber of deputies. The minister has abandoned the prosecution of deserters and he has requested the navigation companies to reinstate all officers and men. The members of the naval committee assured the delegates that M. Thomson's proposition in the matter of pensions would be improved. The delegates therefore unanimously propose that the strike cease."

In the course of his conference with the strikers' delegates M. Thomson declared that it was impossible to accede to their demands. He said, however, that any proposition would be considered if the strikers returned to duty immediately, in which case no punishment would be meted out and the shipowners would be requested to reinstate both officers and men in their former positions.

Convinced the Strikers.

The firm attitude of the minister and his promise that no penalties would be inflicted apparently convinced the strikers that it would be wiser to accept the government's proposal to increase the pensions of seamen from $40.80 to $72 and of officers from $156 to $200 a year than to continue to paralyze commerce and thus entirely alienate the sympathy of the public.

Later in the day the delegates received similar advice from the president of the naval committee of the chamber of deputies, who declared that although the committee was prepared to examine the men's demands, he did not think parliament could adopt a more liberal measure than that offered by the government. At the end of this conference the delegates talked the matter over with the result that the message unreservedly urging their comrades to return to their duties was sent.

The only possibility of a hitch appears to be that the men may decline to follow the advice of their delegates, but persons who are well informed regard this as unlikely, and there is reason to believe that work will be generally resumed.

FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT.

Wealthy and Prominent Citizen of Buffalo Killed.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 4.—Harry Hamlin, one of the best known and wealthiest citizens of Buffalo, was killed in an automobile accident on the Williamsville road a mile north of the city line. Mr. Hamlin's automobile collided with a light wagon driven by Jacob Schaller, a retired butcher of Buffalo. Schaller was badly hurt, but will recover. John Heckel, a twelve-year-old boy who was in Schaller's rig, was fatally injured. Both his legs were broken and his skull fractured.

In the automobile with Mr. Hamlin were Anthony Gavin, a member of the Buffalo police force, and two of Hamlin's employees, one of them acting as chauffeur. Opposite the Country club two automobiles going in the same direction passed the Hamlin party. The road was covered with a heavy coating of dust and the two rapidly moving machines left a dense cloud of dust in their trail. Schaller and the boy were driving toward Buffalo and the automobiles were going in the opposite direction.

The first two machines passed them well to the right. Schaller was peering ahead through the dust when Hamlin's machine flashed directly in front of him. There was no time to turn out. The automobile struck the horse, tearing off its front legs and carrying the wreckage of the wagon 200 feet down the road. Schaller was tossed to one side but the boy was jammed into the wreckage of the rig and the front of the automobile. Mr. Hamlin, who was on the front seat with the chauffeur, was thrown over the ditch and onto the trolley tracks that parallel the roadway. He landed head foremost on the rails. His neck was broken. The chauffeur and Gavin escaped with slight injuries.

Our umbrellas.

These are two vital points to be considered when purchasing an umbrella. First a lady wants a pretty umbrella, one that is neat and modest. Second, she wants a serviceable one, one that will withstand the hard wear usually given a "shower stick." We are pleased to say that you will find both requisite in ours.

HAYWOOD AGAIN ILL.

Noted Prisoner Asks Sheriff to Send for a Doctor.

Boise, Ida., June 4.—Late Monday night W. D. Haywood was again taken sick. He asked the sheriff to send for a doctor and the county physician was at once summoned. Haywood told him that he feared a return of the attack of Saturday morning and asked the doctor to change his medicine. Dr. Lewis prepared a prescription, which Haywood took and afterwards said that he felt better. After leaving the prisoner Dr. Lewis stated that Haywood was not at all seriously ill, but that his nervous system was in a bad condition. While there was no immediate danger of a return of the acute attack of Saturday, the prisoner would have to be extremely careful.

PRESIDENT PLAYS HOOKEY.

Calls Off Cabinet Meeting to Be Photographed Hurdling.

Little Freddy Jones played hooky from Grant school recently and got spanked for it. The same spring weather tempted Theodore Roosevelt, president of these United States, and he fell as little Freddy Jones did, says a Washington special to the New York Times. But the president got away with it, probably because there is no one in spanking authority over the president except the senate, sitting as a high court of impeachment.

One of his most successful photographs, one that will best serve to illustrate history pages describing a strenuous president, is a snapshot of the president jumping a powerful horse over a fence. He has long wanted to get another of those pictures or two or three of them, for the historians, of course. He wanted to please as many historians as possible. For days the horses and the camera and the fence and the president and the photographer have been waiting for an other trial. The other day was just the warm, soft, spring weather to make blood and horses jump well together, and the sun was all that a photographer could desire.

"Bully!" cried the president, and summoned the horses and Lieutenant Fitz-Hugh Lee, his military aid, who rides to hounds himself.

"But it is cabinet day," ventured the shocked Loeb.

"Bother!" protested the president. Then he set his teeth. That was another attempt to hamper him with precedent.

"Call it off," he told Loeb.

Loeb, shocked, because the cabinet has met twice a week on the same days and at the same hour since Washington's day, telephoned the cabinet members suggesting that if they had nothing important to bring up the cabinet meeting would be postponed a day and the president would go riding. Of course they hadn't. But Attorney General Bonaparte is understood to have laughed outright.

GRAND MIMIC WAR SCENE.

Reproduction of Monitor-Merrimac Engagement at Jamestown Exposition.

There are many people now living in the vicinity of Hampton Roads who will remember the terrible days of March 8 and 9, 1862, to the last hours of their lives. On those days the bravest of them risked the missiles of death and thronged the shores to become eyewitnesses of the most unique naval engagement in the history of the world, the struggle between the Merrimac and the Monitor.

To those who witnessed this famous event as well as to those millions of visitors to Norfolk, Va., from all parts of this and other countries to whom the details of the battle are familiar as matters of history one feature of the Jamestown exposition will be of especial interest. This will be the spectacular reproduction of the great engagement which occurred just off the exposition grounds in Hampton Roads, and the presentation will be given in as realistic manner as the perfect equipment of the present day will allow. The historical location so near the actual scene of the occurrence lends added interest to the reproduction, and it is sure to be one of the decided attractions of the exposition.

The scene of the battle will be cyclorama and will be as grand a sight as the human eye ever beheld. The scene opens the day before the battle between the ironclads and shows the sun just setting upon the leaping flames of the burning Congress and the sinking Cumberland, with her cannon booming and her crew cheering as the ship settles beneath the waves and the brave fighters going down to death rather than surrender. The victorious Merrimac is seen slowly steaming away to the shelter of the Confederate shore batteries to await the coming of dawn to complete the work of destruction.

This sunset scene will be one of the most gorgeous ever beheld and will be a revelation of this character of scenic effect. Twilight comes on, and the lurid light of the burning vessels casts its reflection upon the waters, revealing the other vessels of the federal fleet, to which it seemed as a forecast of their own doom on the morrow. As the darkness appears the stars twinkle and the scene becomes tranquil. Then come rolling clouds, forked lightning and peals of thunder, and a storm bursts in all its fury. Rain falls in torrents, and the scene will have every appearance of reality. After the storm has subsided the stars again show themselves and the moon appears in all her glory.

After awhile the day begins to dawn, and the sun peeps over the eastern horizon, and the audience beholds the most beautiful sunrise that can be imagined. Out on the water they will see the Merrimac steaming down upon the Minnesota. The Confederate ironclad has been repaired after her damages from ramming the Cumberland the evening before and draws closer and closer to the federal ship. The Minnesota lies helplessly stranded in shallow water, but suddenly from the rear darts the Monitor. The Merrimac puts on all steam, and soon the battle between ironclads is on. The cannon will be seen in action, and the crack and roar of the guns will be as real as it was during the time of the great fight. The audience will be thrilled with the working of each gunboat, and every movement will be in harmony with the most authentic records of the great battle. Just at the climax the curtain will be drawn, and the audience will be left to determine which was victor.

The engagement will be so reproduced that no exception can be taken by the visitors from any section of the country.

The Merrimac and Monitor used in the reproduction will be made of steel, and by the effect of the new appliances of electricity they will appear to the spectators the actual size of the vessels when they were engaged in this historic battle.

POLICEWOMEN FOR LORAIN.

Ohio Society Leaders Offer Their Services, and Mayor Accepts.

Disgusted by unpunished crimes in the way of robberies and pocket picking, society women of Lorain, O., recently offered their services to Mayor King as policemen, says a special dispatch to the New York World. "Huh! A good joke," he remarked. "Imagine a bunch of the Four Hundred dressed in picture hats and peekaboo waists patrolling the streets in search of criminals!"

But he promised to accept their services and said he would swear them in the next day. "I'll use as many as report for duty," he told them at the end of their interview.

The women declare they are in dead earnest, but the mayor thinks they will change their minds after a night's sleep. "I'm game, though," he said the other night. "I'll put them on duty if they come around. We need a few more policemen or some policewomen."

Korean Financier.

A Korean countryman named Yi Tuksu has come to the conclusion that something should be done to prevent the collection of money to pay the public debt becoming such a drain on the circulation medium as to cause embarrassment to the merchant class, says the Korean Daily Times. He suggests that Koreans give up such luxuries as their gold rings and silver hairpins and other objects of intrinsic value; that these be conservatively appraised and stored carefully in some safe deposit and used as bullion to back a paper currency which will circulate among the people. Whether this is feasible or not it shows that the Koreans are willing to look the difficulties of the situation squarely in the face and desire to meet all valid objections halfway.

PIG IN CLOVER.

Italian Villagers, Led by Fanatical Old Woman, Treat It as Miraculous.

A fanatical old woman in the village of San Giovanni, province of Foggia, Italy, declared recently that she had had a vision in which she saw a pig on the back of which was an image of the sacred heart. Her statement was believed by the superstitious villagers, who sought until they found a porker which seemed to fill the bill, says a special cable dispatch from Rome to the New York Sun.

It proved a fine thing for the pig, which is now not only reputed to be a miraculous animal and is revered as such, but is housed sumptuously and fed on the choicest morsels. Its triumph, however, may be short lived, as the parish priest, who is outraged by the veneration paid the beast, threatens to burn it.

The villagers, however, pin their faith to the porker, and the priest, fearing for his own safety, has refrained from meddling.

Greatest Migration in History.

No migration in history is comparable to the great hordes that have crossed the Atlantic during the last twenty years to enter our territory, says the National Geographic Magazine. In 1905 1,026,409 immigrants were admitted. In 1906 1,100,735, and in the present year the total will exceed the record of 1906 by many thousands. Since June 30, 1900, 6,000,000 have been admitted, of whom probably 5,500,000 have settled permanently in the United States.

Exposition of Barnyard Fowls.

Baron Rosen, the ambassador of Russia at Washington, has informed the department of state that La Societe Russe d'Oisellerie has organized an exposition of barnyard fowls to be held at St. Petersburg next autumn, with a section devoted to fowls raised in foreign countries, says the New York Evening Sun. The Russian government extends an invitation to exhibitors from the United States.

OPERA HOUSE WAS CROWDED

NINETEEN IN THE CLASS

Stage Was Very Beautifully Decorated and Evening Was a Very Enjoyable One

There was scarcely a vacant seat in the opera house Monday evening when Graham's orchestra rendered the beautiful opening number, "Welcome to our Guests." At the conclusion of the overture the curtain rose on the stage on which were seated the nineteen members of the class of 1907. The stage was beautifully decorated in cherry and white, the colors of the class, while the stars and stripes were draped at the back of the stage and a diamond of red, white and blue lights surrounding the class motto hung in the center of the stage.

The greeting on behalf of the class was given by Miss Laura Alta Johnson, who did it gracefully and in well chosen words. She was followed by Dean Wilson who spoke on "Oscillations," tracing the swing backward and forward of the pendulum of civilization since the days of the Pharaohs. The address was logical and well delivered.

The next number on the program was a dual one the Eighth Grade Glee club singing Vincent's "Merry June" and "Blow, Soft Winds." They were very beautifully rendered under the direction of Mrs. Frances Newman Dial, with Miss Millicent Mahlum at the piano.

Miss Kathleen Rounds then gave "A Glimpse Into the Future," in which she foretold with much optimism the conditions at the commencement of the twenty-first century. She was followed by Miss Genevieve Marie Smith, who delivered the class prophecy. It was full of hits that took immensely with those in the audience acquainted with the various members of the class, and was well rendered.

The High School Glee club gave the next two numbers, the first being Wagner's "Spinning Song," with Miss Emily Quinn as soloist, which was well rendered. It was followed by "The Message," Mrs. Frances Newman Dial directing the music and Miss Mahlum being again the accompanist.

Malachi Daniel Clark delivered a stirring tribute to "The American Republic," which was well written and well given.

Alma Otelia Schultz spoke on "Upward Still and Onward," dealing with the necessity of an upward as well as onward movement in civilization.

The High School Semi-Chorus, with Miss Rounds at the piano and accompanied by the orchestra rendered "The Soldier's Chorus" by Gounod and Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," under the direction of Mrs. Dial.

Owing to the illness of Prof. T. B. Hartley, the diplomas were presented by Prof. Hanft.

The closing number was "Our Boys

City Fathers Held Busy Session
Monday Night—Many Bills
Were Allowed

DRAKE ROAD WORK WAS LET

Bid of Roscoe & Durham for Building Drake Road on City
Limits Accepted

There was a long session of the City Fathers Monday evening lasting nearly to midnight. Mostly routine business was done, little of startling nature taking place.

Aldermen Farrar, Zakariasen, Turcotte, Bouck, Twohey and Baker and President Johnson responded to roll call.

The clerk reported a total of $256.80 fines collected in May.

The fire chief's report was read and accepted.

Poundmaster Joseph Selleck reported $8.50 collected as pound fees during the month of May.

The city clerk's report showed $2,997.08 received and $4,535 paid out leaving a balance of $8,300 on hand.

The pay roll of the city officers was allowed at $263.33.

Alderman Fogelstrom came in.

Bills for rock amounting to $1,301.95 were allowed.

City Attorney Polk asked that all bills be voted as provided by the charter in being allowed. Alderman Farrar stated that this was done.

The pay roll of the electric light department amounting to $541.00 was allowed.

A motion was made and duly carried to allow all bills not otherwise disposed of.

Alderman Zakariasen reported a shortage of $150 in court fees and fines due the city from the former city clerk, F. E. Low. A motion was made to refer the matter to the city attorney for collection. Mr. Polk stated that the amounts might not have been collected by Mr. Low and the city may not be able to collect them of him. The matter was laid on the table till the next meeting. Alderman Graham came in and Alderman Bouck was excused and left the chamber.

Mayor Wise suggested that a committee be appointed to look into the matter of borrowing $30,000 to take up the floating indebtedness of the city. The matter was referred to the finance committee with instructions to report at next meeting.

The fire committee reported that it had learned of a suitable team for a fire team at Anoka, but did not know at what price it could be purchased. Team weighed 1,400 each and were five years of age. The fire committee was given power to act in the matter of the purchase of a team.

Moved and carried that until further notice, because of the high price of hay and grain the city pay $4 per day for man and team, commencing June 1st.

The general sewer was again reported in bad shape, and as usual it was left to the sewer committee with power to act. The Sixth street sewer was also reported in bad shape.

The contract of J. F. Vaughn for the cement curb on South Sixth street, and the bond of $1,500 covering same were received and accepted.

The chief of police asked if firemen could ride on the sidewalk in going to fires. City Attorney Polk stated that the city council had no power to allow an ordinance to be violated.

Z. J. LeBlanc asked the privilege for Messrs. Thabes and Webb of building curb along the front of their property on Holy street. The city attorney stated that there should be an ordinance drawn fixing the width of street and position of boulevards. A petition was also presented for the curbing of Seventh street between Main and Juniper, in order that there might be uniformity. It was moved that an ordinance be drawn. There was considerable discussion as to the width of the streets and boulevards to be established. It was stated that it would cost in the neighborhood of $7.50 per lot to boulevard. City Attorney Polk stated that "You can't compel a man to mow his boulevard. The city attorney and street committee were finally instructed to prepare an ordinance designating the width of streets in the second ward and giving specifications for curbing and boulevarding.

Alderman Graham voiced a complaint of a broken water main near the Harrison school building on Norwood street, stating that there seemed no remedy for the existing condition short of a new main, as that one was rotten.

Superintendent Baker, of the electric light department, asked an increase for Peter Christenson, trimmer, in salary from $50 to $60 per month, which was granted, to take effect June 1st.

Alderman Fogelstrom asked that the salary of the street commissioner be placed at $60 per month the year around instead of $250 per day as at present. On motion of that gentleman the matter was deferred until next meeting.

An amendment to ordinance No. 178, regulating dray stands, was presented, providing for the location of the drays on the north side of Front street between Broadway and Ninth streets. Alderman Graham said that this would work an injustice to some of the draymen as those doing hauling for the stores were up in the business section and would thus get the big end of the calls and drive the others out of business. The amendment was lost, ayes Farrar, Johnson, Zakariasen, Baker, nays, Graham, Drexler, Turcotte, Fogelstrom, Twohey.

Moved and carried that the mayor be requested to enforce the ordinance as existing, which provides that the drays must stand on the south side of Main street, between a point 25 feet west of Sixth street and Seventh street.

The bid of C. Durkam and J. Rosko for building Drake road, in the sum of $147, was submitted but no action taken.

There was complaint made of an open catch basin on the corner of Kingwood street and Bluff avenue, and it was reported that Ryan & Johnson were repairing the streets at present and no action was taken in the matter.

There was considerable discussion over the disposition of the fence around Gregory Park, and it was placed in the hands of the park committee.

The license bond and application of R. D. Holden was on motion approved and license ordered granted, but the action was rescinded on request of the city attorney who stated that the application had not been published the full two weeks required by law, the first publication having been Friday, May 19. The application will have to be re-advertised and will come up for hearing on June 21.

The bid of I. T. Welch for work on the Drake road, $385, was received. On motion the bid of Roscoe & Durham was accepted.

A petition was presented asking that the sink hole at Maple and Tenth streets be filled up, claim being made that it was made a receptacle for dead cats, etc. A motion to lay the matter on the table was duly carried.

A petition was presented asking for a cement sidewalk on Laurel street from Fifth street to the Mississippi river. There were nine pages of names on the petition. Alderman Fogelstrom was opposed to it because it was along dead property. Alderman Twohey asked if it was not the same condition when Alderman Fogelstrom voted to pave the street. He said it was, but that was for the good of the public.

Alderman Twohey said, "If this monkey work of injunctions, which will set the city back 29 years, keeps up one ward of the city will be unrepresented in this council. They may get a better man to represent them, but I am sick of the monkey work. The city has made more progress in the last five years than in all the time before." The Laurel street walk was then again referred to the street committee, also sidewalk on Sixth street.

Alderman Zakariasen stated that the band was going to give concerts and wanted a band stand. On motion the matter was referred to the park committee.

City Attorney Polk stated that the attorneys would probably go to Grand Rapids and argue the injunction suit. The council then adjourned.

LOWEST PRICES IN YEARS

Recorded in Some Securities on the New York Stock Exchange.

New York, June 4.—Securities on the Stock Exchange underwent another decline Monday and in some instances the lowest prices in years were reached. The sagging movement, which developed at the opening, was accelerated by the sales of 40,000 shares of stock for foreign account and the news of an engagement of $2,000,000 in gold for export. Numerous rumors were set afloat on the floor, which only served to increase the gloomy opinions of the brokers. New York Central sold down to 108 1/4, a new low level for several years. The stock rallied in the final hour and was 3/4 off from the close Saturday night. Union Pacific was a target for a bear attack and slumped to 128 1/2. After the pressure was removed it advanced to 130 1/4, a decline of 1 1/4 from the last price Saturday. Pennsylvania was heavy under large offerings and sold at 117 1/4, from which it recovered to 118 1/4, or 3/4 under Saturday's closing. Pennsylvania was sold on the company statement that despite a large increase in gross earnings the first four months of the year there was a decrease in net earnings, which brokers ascribe to increased labor costs.

There was a rally at the close of the market due to extensive covering of short contracts.

Czolgosc Back in Cleveland.

Cleveland, June 4.—Michael Czolgosc, brother of Leon Czolgosc, the assassin of President McKinley, returned here from Sharon, Pa., where he has been for a week. He expressed himself as being indignant over reports that he expected to go to Canton last week on the occasion of the funeral of Mrs. McKinley. He went to Sharon he says seeking employment.

Second Death From Accident.

St. Croix Falls, Wis., June 4.—Mrs. C. D. Emery, wife of the local postmaster, died from injuries suffered in the runaway at Taylor's Falls Sunday, in which the five-year-old son of David Connors of Osceola was killed.

Not a Slip of the Tongue.

It is dangerous to pretend to knowledge one does not possess. A man of little education was once a guest at a dinner, during which a servant stumbled so that a roast tongue fell from the platter he was carrying. It was an embarrassing moment, but the quick witted host saved the day by remarking, "Never mind, gentlemen, it's only a 'lapis lingua'." This caused much laughter and applause, and instead of being spoiled the dinner was a great success. The poor, wishing to shine as a wit himself, shortly afterward gave a dinner, to which none of those present at the first dinner were invited. When the guests had been seated a servant entered bearing a beef roast. Just before reaching the table he stumbled and fell. The host, leaping to his feet, astonished the guests by exclaiming, "Never mind, gentlemen, it's only a 'lapis lingua'."—Kansas City Times.

Got the Autograph.

At Carlsbad on one occasion Brahms' physician, Dr. Grunberger, asked the composer for his autograph for a young lady admirer, but Brahms scolded him for making a nuisance of himself and refused to give it. Some weeks later, at his departure from Carlsbad, Brahms handed to the doctor an envelope inscribed, "With the cordial thanks of Johannes Brahms." Noticing a broad grin on the doctor's face, he asked: "What makes you look so cheerful? You don't know yet what the envelope contains." "Nor do I care," retorted the doctor. "The envelope is the main thing. Much obliged for the autograph!"

The Phantom Fire Ship.

The traditional "fire ship" of the Chaleur bay, New Brunswick, appearing usually before a storm, has a basis of fact, according to a scientist. It is a hemispherical light, with the flat side toward the water, glowing sometimes without much change of form, but at other times rising into slender, moving columns; in which an excited imagination might recognize the flaming rigging of a ship. The general explanation offered is that this object is a manifestation of St. Elmo's fire, an electrical phenomenon, but the reason for its appearing only on or near the Chaleur bay is not known.

Children in Pliny's Day.

It was not a modern American writer who, discussing the children, wrote of them thus: "How many are there who will give place to a man out of respect to his age and dignity? They are shrewd men already and know everything. They are in awe of nobody, but take themselves for their own example." These were the words of Pliny the younger used in one of his famous letters during the first Christian century, but they will strongly apply to much of the young America of today.

IRISH BILL DROPPED

British Government Formally Abandons the Measure.

WITH BUT SCANT CEREMONY

Premier Campbell-Bannerman Makes the Announcement in the House of Commons—Decision of Irish People a Source of Regret.

London, June 4.—The Irish bill was formally dropped by the government with scant ceremony and only the most perfunctory signs of mourning even on the part of its ministerial sponsors.

The house of commons was well filled when Premier Campbell-Bannerman rose to make his promised statement on the cabinet's views regarding what measures it was necessary to eliminate from the government's over-weighted legislative programme so that the present session might be brought to a close in the usual time. "I believe," said the premier, "that the Irish people would have done well to have given the details of the measure greater attention than appears to have been the case at the recent convention. But, in view of the announcement of the leader of the Irish party in the house of commons that he would abide by the decision of the convention, and in view of the unanimous decision of the convention to reject the bill, the government cannot go any further with it."

The premier added that the decision of the representatives of the Irish people was a source of sincere regret and disappointment to the ministers, but now that the Irish bill was dropped the government intended to introduce during the present session an "evicted tenants restoration bill" with power of compulsory purchase.

As the cabinet had decided against an autumn session, the premier continued, it was necessary to drop the licensing bill. This, however, would be the very first measure to be taken up at the next session.

The measure designed to relieve the "passive resisters" from paying education rates for religious instruction, the premier further announced, also would be dropped out, but the government was determined to introduce at the next session a comprehensive education bill putting the whole education system of the country in order.

Regarding the long promised attempt to restrict the power of the house of lords, the premier said that so soon as they had made a little further progress in the essential business of the session he proposed to introduce a resolution on the subject, either June 17 or June 24, when the government would fully state its views on the matter.

JAP. POLITICIANS UNEASY.

Apprehension Regarding Future Relations With United States.

Tokio, June 4.—Leading persons in and out of politics seem to have a feeling of apprehension regarding Japan's future relations with the United States. Actual hostilities, however, are not thought of, but it is considered that the peculiar position in which the federal government is placed in regard to state autonomy and the defiant attitude of the labor interests against Japan, as represented in the San Francisco incident, make politicians here uneasy.

Washington, June 4.—The statement coming from Tokio to the effect that uneasiness existed there on account of dissatisfaction on the part of Japanese officials with the attitude of America in relation to the San Francisco troubles caused some concern in official circles here and there were expressions of surprise from those who believed they had seen in the whole-some exchange of felicitations incident to General Kuroki's visit to Washington and Jamestown a manifestation of the best of feeling between America and Japan. What has caused the reported change of feeling at Tokio is a puzzle to officials in Washington, because it cannot be learned that there has been any recent exchanges between the two governments relative to the treatment of the Japanese in San Francisco.

UNITE TO FIGHT ROADS.

Plan for Joint Action by States Affected by Rate Suits.

St. Paul, June 4.—A meeting of governors, attorneys general and other officials of states throughout the Union liable to be affected by the rate litigation now before the federal district court may be held in St. Paul shortly. Attorney General Young is considering the advisability of sending out a general call.

The suits, which are nothing more than an attack on states' rights, are, in the mind of Mr. Young, important enough to warrant general co-operation and especially on the part of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and New York, the legislatures of which have just passed rate regulating laws. It means that if the railroads win other interests, interstate in nature, will invoke the aid of the same decision.

Governor Johnson, when spoken to about the possibility of a special session of the legislature, said such was always possible, but he did not know whether the present tangle would require one or not. He says he has not been fully acquainted with the suit, nor has he had an opportunity of reading the complaint.

SHOOT'S TWO MEN.

Pittsburgher Then Ends His Own Life With a Bullet.

Pittsburgh, June 4.—Two men are dying in a hospital from bullet wounds and a third, who fired the shots, is dead, having committed suicide.

The dead man is Patrick Reardon, twenty-eight years old, who shot himself in the head.

The injured are Thomas Morton, shot through the right eye; M. M. Moorehead, shot twice in the back of the head and once in the neck.

The attempted double murder and suicide occurred at a boardinghouse on Larimer avenue, East End district. Reardon called on the two other men for the purpose of inquiring about a woman named Mrs. Anna Vortisch. Reardon had been drinking. Both Morton and Moorehead denied knowledge of the whereabouts of the woman and Moorehead left Morton and Reardon in the former's room. While alone with Morton, Reardon suddenly drew a revolver and saying that Morton knew where the woman was, fired at him, the bullet entering Morton's eye. Leaving the room, Reardon met Moorehead. Reardon shot him three times. Then with the last shot in the revolver, Reardon killed himself.

That Reardon, however, premeditated suicide was ascertained later when the following letter in his hand-writing was found in his pocket:

"Dear Mamma and Dad:—When you read this I will be dead. That woman ruined my life and I can't live without her. My love and a million kisses. If I can I will haunt her as long as she lives."

The letter was unsigned. A picture of Mrs. Anna Vortisch and her young son was found on Reardon. From other letters in Reardon's possession it was learned that the woman's husband is J. F. Vortisch and that he is in Staten Island. The husband, according to these letters, had written to his wife to join him especially as their young son wanted to see her.

An insurance policy on the woman's life was also found in Reardon's pockets. Mrs. Vortisch left this city a week ago for the East.

MONUMENT TO DAVIS.

Unveiled at Richmond by Confederate Veterans.

Richmond, Va., June 4.—Under a perfect sky with bands playing "Dixie" and "Maryland," the remnants of the armies of the gray passed through the streets of Richmond and out on splendid Monument avenue and unveiled an enduring memorial to Jefferson Davis. The event came as the climax of the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans.

Many tributes were offered by the speakers to the women of the South, whose gift the monument is.

The speeches counselled the teaching of loyalty to the cause for which the Southern states struggled, but there was nothing in the teaching but what excited the sympathy and approval of visitors from the other section.

That the great multitude had gathered for one purpose alone was evidenced by the attitude of the people toward William J. Bryan, who was the guest of the reunion. He was given a remarkable ovation as he drove through the streets in the line of march and cheered to the echo as he mounted the stand just before the programme was begun. At the conclusion of the ceremony there were a number of calls for him to address the people, but these were immediately drowned in a chorus of "no, no, no," many times repeated. The objections came from everywhere and were led by the women of the Jefferson Davis Monument association, also General Stephen D. Lee, grand commander, who presided and announced in ringing tones: "There will be no politics here."

NOT QUITE COMPLETE.

Another Man Needed to Fill Up the Schmitz Jury.

San Francisco, June 4.—Twice during the closing hour of the session of the Schmitz trial it seemed all but certain that the jury was about to be completed, but each time the long looked for twelfth juror escaped through peremptory challenges. Just before adjournment Former Judge Fairall for the defense made a motion to this effect: That the ruling of the court last week in allowing the challenging by the prosecution of two jurors after they had been sworn gave the defense under the law the right to demand ten additional peremptory challenges in lieu of the dismissal of all the other jurors and the empanelment of an entirely new jury. Judge Dunne denied this motion. Mr. Fairall reserved an exception.

Shoots His Arm Off.

Willow River, Minn., June 4.—While out hunting and fishing Peter Solak accidentally discharged a shotgun which he was taking from a boat where he had been fishing, the contents entering his left arm near the shoulder, almost severing it from the body. He was brought to this place immediately, where the physicians found it necessary to amputate the arm. Mr. Solak is in a very weak condition and may not recover.

Riots in South Boston.

Boston, June 4.—After a period of comparative quiet in the teamsters' strike, which has been in force for about two months in this city, a series of riots occurred in South Boston. Two strikebreakers were badly cut and bruised by stones and two police men were injured as the mob tried to get at a team of the R. S. Brince Transportation company.
